

New faces will be seen at Minden council table

There are bound to be some new faces around the Anson, Hindon and Minden Township Council table after the November election.

The fact was revealed this week in a poll of present members of the council. Two have indicated they do not intend to seek re-election and a third has yet to decide whether he will allow his name to stand again.

The two who are stepping down from the post of councillor are Stu Brandon and Len Lonsberry. Brandon told The Times earlier this week that business pressures and commitments in other areas made it difficult for him to continue on the council. Brandon is the president of the Minden Rotary Club and manages Northland Surplus, a store owned by his father.

Len Lonsberry has been forced to withdraw from council activities for health reasons. His doctors have advised him not to participate in the next election and he will be retiring from his position as manager of the local Brewer's Retail outlet as well. "It is a decision I regret," Lonsberry commented. "I enjoyed serving on the council."

Minden Reeve Sinclair Nesbitt has indicated his intention to seek election to the same position on the new council as has Deputy Reeve Doug Pritchard.

Councillor Lyle McKnight is the only member of council who has yet to declare his intentions. McKnight said he expected he would know within the week whether he would seek re-election to the local council.

Only one individual, who is not a member of the council at this point, has indicated his intention of running in the municipal election. Leroy Lichty, the owner of The Brown Owl Restaurant and Gas Bar has said he will run for the position of councillor in the municipality.

Lichty told The Times that he was disturbed by some of the decisions the council had been making lately and wanted to become involved in the township business. He said there was a need in the community to create more jobs and suggested that land should be set aside for light industry. He said an industrial base would strengthen the economy of the region.

The two representatives from Anson, Hindon and Minden on the county school board are Lloyd Johnson and Don Booth. Johnson said earlier this week that he had yet to decide whether he would allow his name to stand for the position of trustee. He said he expected to have his mind made up by early next week.

Booth said pressures of business and outside interests would probably force him to not take part in the November campaign. "It is very doubtful at this point whether I will be running," Booth said.

According to Township Clerk-Treasurer Elinor Burke no candidates have officially filed their papers with her office at press time, Tuesday. Candidates have until October 20 to present their nomination papers to the local clerks.

Lutterworth

The council team that came to power in Lutterworth Township two years ago will all be seeking re-election this November.

Reeve Ron Gambell, Deputy Reeve Glynne Lewis and Councillors Bill Valentine, Bill Prentice and Al Stott, have indicated they intend to run as a team.

All of the members of the present council stated they enjoyed working with each other and felt they had accomplished a great deal in the past two years.

So far no other candidate has indicated his or her intention in Lutterworth Township.

Mrs. Cheryl Murdoch, Lutterworth's representative on the Board of Education for the past two years has indicated that she will be seeking to retain her seat on the board.

Stanhope

All members of Stanhope Township council, with the exception of one councillor, are seeking re-election this November.

Incumbent members of council announced their intentions last Thursday to Times columnist Alex Stevenson. The only member who has decided not to run again is newcomer Roger Woods.

Reeve Jim Harrison will be going after the same post once again, as will Deputy reeve Elgin Stouffer. Councillor Elvin Johnson and Harry Davis are also seeking re-

First phase of complex begins

The first phase of construction for the library/cultural centre complex was approved at the Wednesday evening meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden Township council.

The council awarded the contract for the construction of two cement slabs to Big C Construction Company of Haliburton. The bid accepted by the council was $26,100. Don Campbell Construction of Minden was the only other firm to submit a tender on the project.

Two cement pads are being built on the site on Bobcaygeon Road North. The larger slab will be a base for the library and cultural centre while the smaller one at the back of the lot will be used for the present library, which will be moved to the site and maintained as a historical building and museum.

According to the terms laid down by the council, the work is to be completed by October 14. Workmen from the company were on the site the morning after the resolution was passed and work has been proceeding swiftly since then.

Councillor Len Lonsberry, who has been the municipality's representative on the library building committee signed the resolution accepting the tender. He commented, "It has been a long time coming. I am glad to see this day."

The council went ahead with the slab construction and the proposal that the building could "float" on the wet soil in the area despite a report from soils engineers in Peterborough which indicated that further action should be taken before the building is erected there.

In a report to council, Site Investigation Services Limited suggested that if the council wanted to build the complex in that location it should follow one of three procedures to ensure a secure foundation. These included (a) excavating the organic sub soils, which they stated were not deep in the area, and replacing them with compacted clean gravel fill; (b) placing a heavy load of soil

Ratepayer group first meeting - 36 in attendance

It appears that a ratepayers group will be formed in the townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden. An organizational meeting held September 23 drew 36 people according to organizer J.O. Jackson. "A number of others called to say they were interested but were unable to attend the meeting so it appears we have enough people to form a group," Jackson commented.

Among those attending the meeting Tuesday were three individuals representing area cottage and lake associations. He reported that those attending discussed a number of issues of concern to area taxpayers including what Jackson describes as the disparity between the amount of taxes contributed to county purposes by ratepayers from this municipality in comparison to other townships.

The only resolution passed by the group was that they would meet again in the near future to elect an executive and formally draft their aims and objectives. "I think the group should meet in early October, certainly before October 20", Jackson commented. Nominations for positions on area boards and councils in the upcoming municipal election close on that date.

Jackson suggested that the group might consider urging some of its members to seek municipal office or actively support those candidates who reflect the views of the association. The spokesman stated that he had been approached by a number of individuals about running in the election, but that he had not made up his mind.

Those attending the meeting also discussed the possibility of levying a $1 membership fee to cover the costs involved in getting the organization operational. Those in attendance were also urged to bring a friend to the next meeting to help swell the membership.

$106,165 debenture approved

Minden Township Council has approved a by-law allowing for the borrowing of $106,165. The by-law was approved at the September 24 meeting.

The money will be used to purchase the water reservoir and pipe leading down the side of the hill from the Ontario Government. The amount to be borrowed had been set at $140,000, but $35,000 had been "forgiven" by the province.

The debenture issue will run for a 30 year term with an interest rate of 9.025%.

Jackson noted that notices mailed out to Minden Post Office box holders were late in arriving at the post office. This resulted in a number of area residents not receiving their notice until the day after the meeting was held. "I apologise for that", Jackson commented. "In the future we'll attempt to provide lots of warning so people can plan to attend."

While a day for the next meeting has yet to be set, Jackson said this newspaper will be informed well in advance so that those residents interested in attending the meeting can plan to do so.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

What's this Chamber supposed to do anyway?

Good Question! With two newspapers taking an entirely opposite viewpoint on the responsibility of the Chamber in connection with the forthcoming municipal elections it may be timely to consider the question further.

Five years ago it was found, when talking to members of the business community, that there was a real concern that the Chamber was little more than a tourist association and did not represent a full cross section of the businesses in the area. The criticism may, or may not have been well founded, but as a result the Chamber has since been conscientiously aware of other areas that it should be considering involvement in, so that it would fulfill its entire mandate.

Directors, other than those directly involved in tourist operations have been encouraged to serve on the board in order to broaden the Chamber's scope. We have, in the meantime, tried not to sacrifice any of our energies towards tourist promotion to accomplish this. Now, the newspaper that was among those that criticized us four and five years ago agrees with the members of council that say we should limit ourselves to promoting tourism.

Our members often look to the Chamber for help when they feel some level of government is treating them unfairly. We have, where it was apparently justified, attempted to rectify some situations on their behalf. We have also been asked both by our members and municipal bodies to present briefs on such concerns as D.R.E.E., the Railroad Hearing, Algonquin Park Planning, The Provincial Trails Council, Retention of the Registry Office, and even Market Value Assessment.

We fought in vain, in the name of retaining our identity, to keep the "Now entering Haliburton Highlands" signs in place. Raising our voice on these issues has now brought the comment that we should "stop criticizing government". Government on the other hand says they welcome the type of input provided by the Chamber. How else are they to judge some of their own decisions?

The public sees the Chamber as a body to go to with their complaints and concerns, — all the way from watching loons being harassed on a lake by boaters, to the fact they were hoodwinked by some fly-by-night salesman. Although many of these problems are beyond our area of influence we do what we can to assist in any way we can. When we receive complaints involving our own members we attempt to mediate the matter to a satisfactory conclusion.

The public also sees the Chamber as a source of information, while often we are the last ones to be informed, unless we take the initiative to find out. Inquiries range from information on coming events to trying to locate a long lost cousin whom they think resides in the area. This often requires considerable detective work by the staff, to provide the answers when we don't have the information on file.

Many organizations both within and outside the county look to the Chamber to complement their role in providing services. This can vary from the very active role of sponsoring the Canada Manpower Outreach Office here to a minor one of sponsoring the Federal Business Development Bank's seminar. Minor, that is, in that they do all the work.

We are, of course, asked by many organizations to assist in promoting their upcoming events, and as well to sit in on organizational meetings involving such things as water levels committees, career planning, social planning, tournaments, and the forming of new clubs and associations.

The tourist operators want the Chamber to promote the area, assist them with their own promotion, and operate the information centre that in turn refers business to their establishments. Many also hope to be provided with advice and constructive suggestions in regard to their operations. The Chamber in fulfilling this role is in the midst of putting together the biggest promotional campaign we have ever attempted, which involves 25,000 directories, 15,000 accommodation guides, and 50,000 "Lure" brochures.

Last year the Chamber was asked to take on the administrative responsibilities of the Haliburton County Economic Development Commission and it has done so willingly. It would appear that this is logical since so many of the areas of concern of the Chamber and the Commission overlap to the point that it would be simply duplication to do otherwise. Nonetheless, this has tended to increase the work load and broaden the scope of the Chamber's involvement.

The constitution of the Chamber states that the object "shall be to promote and improve trade and commerce, and the economic, civic, and social welfare of the Provisional County of Hali-

Reverend Barker leaves for appointment at Washago

Reverend David Barker with his wife Shirley, sons Michael, 3, Stephen, 18 months and Vietnamese youth Ty. Reverend Barker has been appointed to an Anglican parish in Washago, near Orillia.

After almost four years as pastor at St. Paul's Minden, St. Stephen's Boshkung and St. Peter's Maple Lake, Reverend David Barker of the local Anglican parish has left for an appointment in Washago, near Orillia.

"It is hard to leave," Reverend Barker commented surrounded by the hustle and bustle of packing day activities. "It is difficult to leave people you've grown close to through ministry. Those are perhaps the hardest ties to break when you leave." The Barkers, their two children and Vietnamese youth, Ty, left on Tuesday for the new posting. Reverend Barker said he would carry with him special memories of the Minden parish as it was his first charge. He served previously as an assistant at St. Wilfrid's in Islington.

His new parish in Washago includes four points, centred on Washago. The active congregation in the four churches is somewhat larger than the parish in Minden.

Reverend Barker was the thirty-fourth priest to serve at the Minden Church since it was created in 1866.

"We've certainly enjoyed it here," he commented. "The warmth of the parishioners was more than reflected in the special receptions we attended during the past week or so." In response to the appreciation from the parishioners, Shirley Barker made clay crosses which were distributed to those attending the farewell gatherings.

The appointment to the Washago parish is effective immediately with the official induction scheduled for November 2. No replacement has been found as yet for the Minden parish.

Cheating the voters

Interest in the municipal elections is starting to grow with most members of present councils declaring their intentions and several new candidates entering the field.

It is particularly encouraging to see a number of individuals taking an interest in the upcoming elections. While it is easy to accept the present councils for another term, and certainly most of the incumbents have proven their value to the municipalities they serve, there is also value in bringing new and fresh ideas to the council table.

The key to any election lies in an informed choice made by knowledgeable electors. This means first, encouraging enough people to allow their names to stand for election to offer the voters a choice, and secondly, having those voters make the effort to find the candidates who would best serve the interests of the municipality.

Acclamation of candidates may indicate overwhelming support for an individual, but it does not provide for a close examination of the record or policies of those who gain office by this route.

We hope there are enough interested citizens in area municipalities to ensure voters are not cheated of their most precious democratic right, to those who will govern them for the next two years.

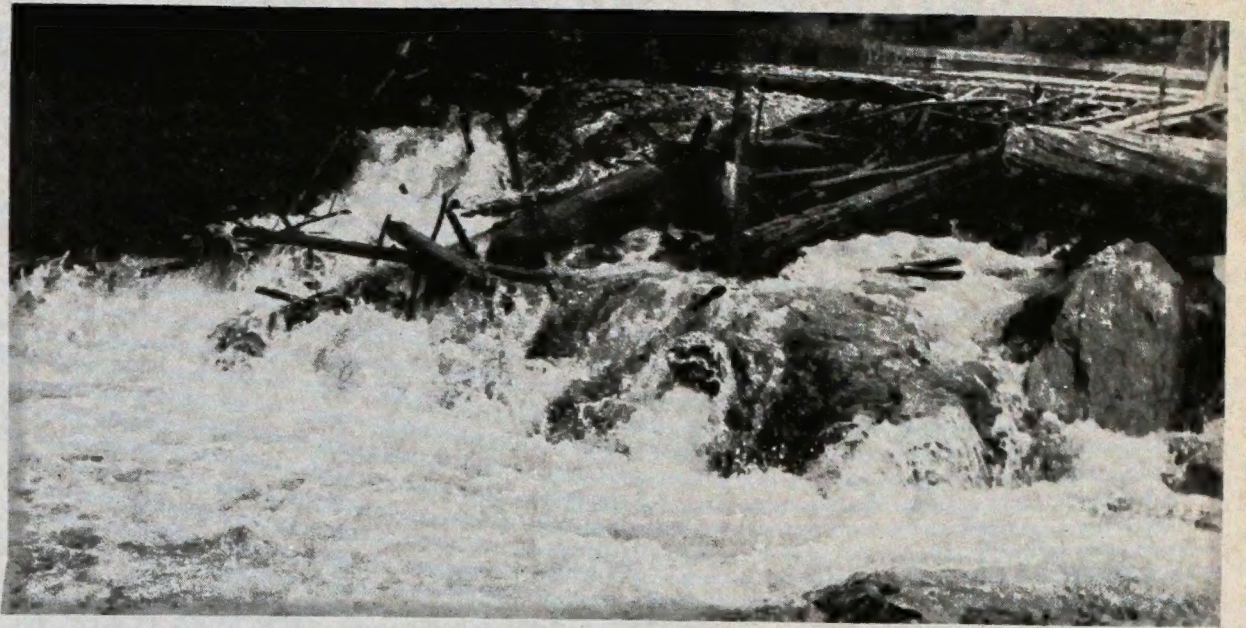

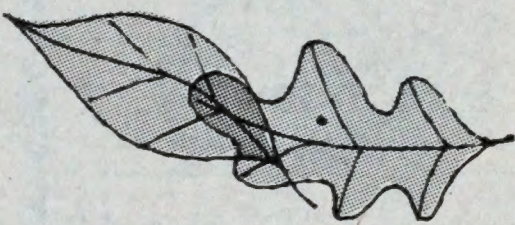

It's great

Ever so slowly the leaves are taking on their autumn colours. The fall spectacular appears to be a little late this year, but then it is just offering us a longer display.

Autumn is a glorious time of the year. The crisp air foretells of chill days ahead but the sun still bravely warms the face. It's a wonderful time to be in the Highlands, a time when we, as residents, might even gloat a bit over our good fortune to live here.

It is also a time of welcoming friends and visitors into our midst to share the colours of the season.

Autumn in the Highlands. It's great!

REPORT FROM PARLIAMENT

by William C. Scott, M.P.

Prime Minister Trudeau has announced that he plans to call Parliament back into session earlier than the scheduled October 15th date.

The Progressive Conservative Party, the Official Opposition, has no objection to an early recall of Parliament, and in fact I personally feel that it is important for the House of Commons to get back to work as soon as possible.

However, my reasons for wanting an early recall of Parliament are not the same as Mr. Trudeau's. The Prime Minister is still running true to form, in that he does not seem to be able to get his priorities straight.

While I want to have Parliament deal with the serious problems of inflation, unemployment, a declining Canadian dollar, and a host of other critical problems, Mr. Trudeau wants to debate a bill that would allow him to act unilaterally to bring the British North America Act to Canada, and amend it to suit his own purposes, or write a new constitution.

Our economic problems are much too serious to be left on the back burner for so long. In addition to our other problems, we still do not have an oil pricing agreement between Ottawa and the oil-producing provinces. To make matters worse, the consortium operating the tar sands project in Alberta has announced that it is shutting down the project.

The failure of the recent, week-long federal/provincial conference on the Constitution proves beyond a doubt that there should now be a cooling off period before serious talks are resumed on the future of the BNA Act. The constitutional wrangle has caused us to lose face in the world, and investors now view Canada as an unstable and uncertain entity.

Here at home we are at the cross-roads, with first Quebec and now the western provinces re-examining their roles in confederation. Prime Minister Trudeau's threats to act unilaterally to bring home the BNA Act have brought the Canadian federation closer to break-up than at any time in our history.

It is time for us to stop wrangling over the Constitution and get down to the business of running the country. Since the last federal election very little has been done to create jobs, cope with inflation and interest rates, stabilize the Canadian dollar, or any of the other responsibilities of government. Mr. Trudeau's pre-occupation with the constitution has left Canada floating around like a ship without a rudder.

Canada has a perfectly good constitution in the BNA Act and while I realize that we have to move with the times, I can't see any great need for urgency in framing a new constitution at this time. Mr. Trudeau's self-imposed timetable for renewing the constitution contains an element of panic, while anything as important to us as our constitution should be dealt with in a calculated and deliberate manner. It is a time when cool heads and clear minds should prevail.

When Parliament reconvenes I sincerely hope that the Prime Minister will consider the wisdom of proceedings unilaterally, and heavy-handedly, on the constitution in the face of the combined opposition of the provincial premiers and the two opposition parties in the House of Commons.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

By John Eakins, M.P.P.

I will be soon announcing a new telephone access service to all my constituents in Victoria and Haliburton. Until now, anyone wishing to contact my Lindsay office from outside the Lindsay dialing area has had to pay long distance charges. This will change as of September 30.

An IN-WATS service is now being installed and when completed anyone may have the service of this office without charge by simply calling 1-800-461-7672. A special news release will be issued when this arrangement has been completed.

Last week I accompanied my leader, Stuart Smith, on a tour of Eastern Ontario. The purpose of the Task Force was to meet with Ontarians in all areas of the province and from all walks of life, to sound out their problems, their concerns, and their ideas as to what can and should be done in the Legislature of Ontario to improve our economy, our environment, and our way of life in general.

In each locality, we met with the general public, with municipal leaders, and with various local, regional and provincial interest groups.

I am confident that our Provincial Task Force will provide hundreds of Ontarians with an excellent opportunity to speak to their elected representatives at Queen's Park, and to express their views with the confidence of knowing their views will be taken back to the Legislature and delivered to the Government with a demand for action in a number of fields.

The hearings on the CNR application for abandonment of the Lindsay to Haliburton line are over. These proved to be long but interesting days and I hope as a result that the application will be stalled for a few years.

Once the rails have been removed, they will never be replaced.

Dwight Thomas receives special ambulance staff award

Dwight Thomas of Minden has been awarded the N.H. McNaully Award for service above and beyond the call of duty as an ambulance attendant.

The award was announced earlier this week with a formal presentation scheduled to take place October 6 in Toronto.

The award is presented by the Association of Casualty Care Personnel to one member of their group who provides service beyond that normally required. Dwight is employed at the Fenelon Falls Ambulance Service.

According to his supervisor, Harmon Allen, Dwight had been called to the scene of a car accident near Fenelon Falls on July 26. A woman passenger in one of the cars was trapped in the vehicle and Dwight went to her aid.

He was beginning casualty care procedures, in which a patient receives certain treatment before she can be moved, when the vehicle she was trapped in burst into flame. The fire was fed by gasoline from the car.

Despite the intense heat and danger from the flames, Dwight stayed with the woman for as long as he could, attempting to comfort her and continue the pre-removal procedures. Eventually the heat became too intense for the attendant and he was forced to withdraw. The local fire department arrived on the scene a short time later and ambulance attendants were able to re-enter the car to remove the injured woman.

The woman was taken from the car, transferred to Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay and later to Toronto. She died later in Toronto. However, according to ambulance officials, it is likely the woman would have succumbed earlier had it not been for the care and attention given her under most difficult conditions by Dwight Thomas.

The nomination for the award was made by his fellow attendants at the Fenelon Falls Ambulance service.

The award is one of the highest an ambulance attendant in Ontario can receive. Only one is given each year and Dwight will be the fourth recipient of the award.

Minden teenager in Miss Teen Canada Pageant

A Minden teenager will be among those vying for the title of Miss Teen Canada when the annual pageant is held in early November.

Louise Fleming, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming will enter the contest under the banner of Miss Mississauga. She was named to that title last Thursday following a contest in that community just outside of Toronto.

The road to the nationally televised pageant began several weeks ago when Louise noticed a poster in the Sheridan Mall inviting entries for the local contest. She applied and, after an interview, talent test, (she plays the piano) and participating in a fashion show as a model, she was selected as the Mississauga representative.

Louise is a second year student of mathematics and computer science at the University of Waterloo. She is a graduate of Haliburton Highlands High School and reigned as queen of the Haliburton Winter Carnival two years ago. She has two brothers and two sisters.

The Miss Teen Canada Pageant will take place November 3. It is televised from Toronto on the CTV network.

by Ron Reid of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists

Making your yard a haven for birds can be a joyful hobby all year round. A procession of bright flowers, berry-producing shrubs and well-stocked bird feeders enlivens more and more yards across Ontario. But these attractions can bring hazards for our feathered friends as well; every year the Federation of Ontario Naturalists receives enquiries about how to stop the toll of migratory birds killed by flying into picture windows adjacent to attractive gardens.

Birds seem to be attracted to these windows for two reasons. If a pane of glass reflects the trees and shrubbery around it, an unwary bird can attempt to fly through this mirror image. Sometimes in breeding season, a male bird persists in attacking his reflection to oust this intruder, creating a frenzied fluttering that is more annoying than dangerous. In many cases, windows are arranged in passageways or livingrooms so that a clear passageway appears right through the house, creating a dangerous illusion for small birds.

If you have problem windows in your house, you may have to experiment to find the best solution. Hanging objects that tinkle or glitter, such as strips of foil or wind chimes, will often deter birds from a window. Light see-through screening or mesh can prevent dangerous reflections, or cushion the blow of approaching birds. Parallel strands of fishing line, strung several inches apart from the window frame works well for one of our friends.

Some homeowners report success with life-size silhouettes of birds of prey attached inside the window. This apparent "predator" will make small songbirds more cautious about approaching at high speeds. Using any reputable field guide as a model, the construction of suitable cardboard silhouettes could provide an entertaining rainy-day activity for your kids, and help our bird life as well.

Three single vehicle mishaps

Three single car accidents were reported by officers of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police during the past week.

Included in these reports was an incident involving an 82 year old Toronto man, Lorne Campbell, was travelling west on Highway 121 in Minden Township when the vehicle skidded out of control and entered the north ditch. The mishap occurred September 23.

The vehicle sustained $2000

The accident was investigated by Constable Weldon Popp.

A single vehicle accident on Trappers Trail Road resulted in $1500 damage to the truck driven by John Gardner, 22, of Eagle Lake. The pick-up truck was travelling north on the road when it entered the east ditch on a curve, and rolled over. The accident occurred September 26.

Constable Boyd Jarvis investigated the mishap.

Trent-Severn update

Reservoir storage declined to 59% on September 22, about 9% higher than the 10 year average. The lakes are now close enough to normal fall levels that flows from the reservoirs can be reduced and still have the lakes at their winter holding levels by October 31, before the lake trout spawn.

The Kawartha Lakes started the week below the maximum of their navigation ranges, but most overfilled this week with the heavy precipitation, and flows have been increased to bring them down to mid-ranges again.

Lake Simcoe-Couchiching flows have been reduced, as the lake is now at a level of 218.86 metres, only 4 cm above the rule curve elevation for this date.

Tough new laws will deter trespassing. How we're helping to protect you and your property.

For nearly 150 years Ontario has had a law making it an offence to enter property where entry is prohibited. But now new legislation—The Trespass to Property Act—has toughened up the law to protect your rights.

Trespassers can now be fined up to $1,000. In addition, they can be ordered to pay for damages they have caused.

An important part of the legislation designates premises where entry is prohibited without notice. These include your gardens, orchards, vineyards, land under cultivation, woodlots and fenced land.

Where notice must be given to prohibit entry, you may use red markings on gates, trees or fences. Yellow markings may be used to caution that only certain activities may be permissible. It is the responsibility of the visitor to find out what you permit.

LAND USED FOR RECREATION
In the past, there was a great deal of confusion regarding your responsibility to people you allow on your land. Consequently many farmers and rural landholders would not allow recreational activities on their properties.

Now another new act—The Occupiers' Liability Act—reduces your responsibility. In a nutshell, the law assumes that those who take their recreation on most rural land without paying a fee will take care for their own safety.

A special system has been devised to allow you to easily indicate which activities you will allow on your property. A sign naming or graphically representing an activity (for example, hiking) indicates that the activity is permitted. The same kind of sign with an oblique stroke through it means that you prohibit the activity.

These new laws are part of a continuing program to streamline our legislation. By clarifying your rights, they afford you greater protection from trespass and also reduce your liability when you make land available for recreational purposes.

Minden is bustling with construction activity this fall as workmen hurry to complete the jobs before the winter weather sets in. Two municipal projects currently underway include the library and cultural centre and the curling club and recreation centre. Workmen at the library site, above, were staking out the forms for the cement pad on which the new building will be constructed. The work is to be completed by October 14. At the site of the new curling club, left, cement was being poured for the footings of the steel frame structure.

Anglican Archbishop to visit Minden

Anglicans in the Victoria and Haliburton Regions will be able to meet with the Archbishop of their Diocese, The Most Reverend Lewis S. Garnsworthy, Archbishop of Toronto and Metropolitan of the Province of Ontario as he makes an extended visitation to the area October 5 - 7th. Archbishop Garnsworthy has said, "I look forward to this extended visitation, and to sharing with as many persons as possible both the hopes, and the problems of life in church and society, and the vision of this diocese to work to achieve the hopes and to address the problems".

The Deanery has arranged an itinerary to include meeting grades 12 and 13 at Lindsay Collegiate & Vocational Institute where he will share with them his experiences in the Third World countries which he has visited and answer their questions on moral or ethical issues. In addition the Archbishop will have meetings with clergy and deanery groups and preside at services at St. George's Haliburton, St. Paul's Minden, St. James Kinmount, St. James Fenelon Falls, St. Paul's Beaverton, and St. Paul's Lindsay.

Extended visitations are enabling the Bishops of the Anglican Diocese of Toronto to get to know the people and areas they serve in a much more personal way, and to share in the accomplishments of ministry by parishes in the region.

Fun weekend on the links

There was a festival of fun during the weekend as golfers from all points in Ontario converged on the Haliburton Highlands Golf Course for an annual tournament.

Dubbed the Haliburton Highlands Festival of Fun, the tourney included wine and cheese parties, dancing, champagne breakfast and, mixed in with all those activities, a number of rounds of golf.

Hugh Nicholl of Haliburton took the Molson's award for the low gross during the two day event.

Leading for the low net was Paul Linstead of Aurora, Paul is also a cottager on Horseshoe Lake. Second in low net was Roger Stewart of Barrie while Ed Barnard of King City placed third.

Fifty-two golfers took part in the tournament which organizer Keith Stephenson described as an "excellent weekend."

at the Hyland Crest auditorium and drew 30 members.

Dr. Jeff Lodenquai will be heading the club during its first year. Assisting him on the executive will be secretary-treasurer Mrs. Terry Smith, badminton captain Mrs. Bruna Foran, tennis captain Mr. Paul Prentice and ping pong captain Mr. Gerard Feltham.

The Friday night meeting centred on the ping pong tables, after the club members had an opportunity to hear about the goals of the club and the schedule of activities, they joined in the action around the tables. Lori McKnight, Sweetheart of the County Fair, and Lori Rolfe, Minden Winter Carnival Queen, officiated at the opening as they served the first volley across the ping pong nets.

The tennis season is rapidly waning, but die-hard tennis buffs can continue on the courts at the Minden arena.

The badminton section will be meeting evenings at the Archie Stouffer School, Monday for adults and Thursdays for juniors.

The club now has three ping pong tables and hopes to soon acquire two more. The ping pong enthusiasts meet Friday evenings at Hyland Crest auditorium.

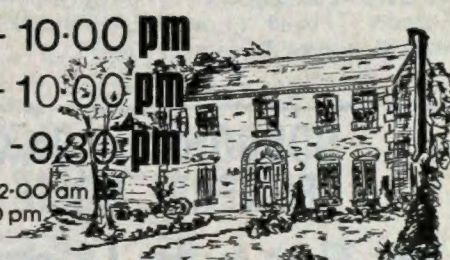

An invitation has been extended to those who are not members of the club to take part in the activities or visit the locations to watch the sports in action. For more information contact the president, Dr. Jeff Lodenquai at 286-2001.

Stanhope donation adds to Fox fund

Donations from residents in Haliburton County continue to pour in to the Canadian Cancer Society offices. The latest donation to be announced was a $350.64 contribution made by residents of Stanhope Township and area.

The money was raised at a Terry Fox Night, sponsored by the Stanhope Firefighters Association and held September 13. During that evening $203.64 was raised for the Society.

In the week that followed an additional $94 was raised from township residents to bring the total to $297.64. The members of the Stanhope Firefighters Association added $50 to the collection.

The cross Canada marathon run of Terry Fox, which ended in Thunder Bay last month, was the inspiration behind this and other efforts to raise funds for the Cancer Society.

Grocery Store

The efforts of a local grocery store has also added to the donations being received from the area.

Easton's Red & White grocery stores in Minden and Haliburton agreed to donate 14¢ per loaf of bread purchased at the stores during a week in September. The amount donated from the sale of the bread was $129.64, representing 926 loaves of bread sold during the week. In addition, donations received over the counter at the Minden store brought the total contribution up to $165.

These funds will be forwarded to the Victoria-Haliburton Counties Marathon of Hope fund to be included in donations sent to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Chuck Ealy, former CFL quarterback, takes a swing at an old car during an open house at Minden Marine this past Saturday. No, the vehicle was not blocking his own, but was available to visitors who were looking for a way to vent their frustrations and help raise money for the Canadian Cancer Society. Patrons paid 50¢ a crack to have a bash at the car with all proceeds going to the Terry Fox Marathon of Hope. Ealy is a sales representative for John Deere. Minden Marine operator Larry McKnight watches the action from a safe distance.

Pamphlet relates Ont. hunting regulations

The 1980 Ontario Hunting Summary is now available in sporting goods stores where licences are issued, from other licence issuers and Ministry of Natural Resources offices. Natural Resources Minister James Auld announced recently.

"Sportsmen can use the summary as a ready reference for details on the forthcoming deer, moose, upland game and waterfowl seasons," Mr. Auld said.

Changes in the moose and deer seasons were announced by the Minister earlier this year.

"I would like to again explain that under new moose regulations, hunters must share a moose. Two or three persons may hunt together but when a moose is killed by a person 'hunting in a party' two must immediately attach the seal provided with the licences," he added.

The Minister said the corresponding moose licences become invalid when the seals are securely attached through the tendon on one of the hind legs.

Mr. Auld also emphasized changes in the deer hunting regulations for 1980.

He said a deer licence will only be valid for taking antlered deer with at least one antler, 7.5 cm (three inches) or longer, unless a validation tag for antlerless deer is affixed to the back of the licence. The validation tags will be available only to Ontario residents.

"By now the hunters who purchased deer licensed in 1979 will have received details of Ontario's new selective harvest system for deer. Also included in the information package was an application to hunt antlerless deer," the Minister said.

Additional application forms may be picked up at licence issuers and Ministry offices. Applications had to be post-marked on or before August 20 to be eligible for the draw.

Mr. Auld said that with one exception, the small game and waterfowl seasons are almost identical to last year's and, in most cases, have been adjusted so that opening days fall on a Saturday.

He said the one exception is the introduction of a central Ontario district for waterfowl hunting which will correspond to small game hunting in Zone 10. The waterfowl and ruffed grouse seasons open Saturday, September 20 in that area, about one week earlier than 1979.

Store rifles securely

As a result of the cottage checking program, the number of hunters in the area with firearms in their vehicles and a series of recent break-ins in which a firearm was stolen from a cottage and utilized by the accused, the OPP wish to remind owners of firearms, that they have an obligation to store their firearms and ammunition in a careful manner.

If you are storing firearms in your home or cottage, it is suggested the weapons be made safe by one of the following means: (a) A trigger guard lock be placed on the firearm which prevents its being fired or (b) If the weapons are on a wall rack, by placing a locked chain through the trigger guards and securing the chain to the gun rack or wall.

It is further suggested that if possible the bolt or breech block be removed and stored elsewhere.

If the weapons are left in your cottage it would be a good idea to cover or conceal the firearms so they will not be seen from the exterior of the building and act as a temptation to someone who may break in to steal them.

Firearms in vehicles should be secured in the same manner as previously mentioned. If you leave your vehicle, even for a brief moment, lock your vehicle securely.

In all cases the ammunition for the firearms should be stored away from the area where you keep your weapons.

A conviction for storing a firearm or ammunition in a careless manner or without reasonable precautions for the safety of others, carries a maximum penalty on first offence of 2 years imprisonment.

Moving up

This year's Thanksgiving weekend demolition derby will be moving to a higher "plain".

Anson, Hindon and Minden Township approved a request September 24 to have the annual event moved from the lower parking area at the arena to the grassed area adjacent to the tennis courts. The request was made by the sponsoring group, the Minden Kinsmen Club.

Councillor Len Lonsberry expressed concern that the cars would damage the grass in that area. However, Councillor Stu Brandon pointed out that the derby had been held in that location in the past and the grass recovered from the pounding it took.

Reeve Sinc Nesbitt said the move should be approved, "as long as they do not go on the fairgrounds." He pointed out that once the new curling club building is finished the parking lot in the upper area will have to be enlarged. The derby will take place in this area of the proposed parking lot expansion.

The annual car crashing event is scheduled to take place Saturday, October 11.

STANHOPE NOTES

by A. F. Stevenson

Stanhope Fire Department again demonstrated its value this week when a fire occurred in the attic of the home of Mr. John Dones on Highland Road east of Highway 35.

The fire, caused by a faulty electric wire, was not noticed by Mr. Dones until he had reason to go outside, at which time he noticed the smell of smoke and on investigating saw smoke coming from the attic ventilator. The fire department was called and brought the fire under control, preventing what could have been a destructive blaze.

Mr. Dones expressed great satisfaction with the performance of the members of the department, saying that their quick response and their competence in bringing the fire under control left no room for complaint. He thought it was a praiseworthy effort which greatly minimized the damage which could have resulted.

Mr. Dones also pointed out that in addition to the quick response, he was surprised and pleased by the number of volunteers who responded to his call in mid afternoon. It has to be said again that the Township of Stanhope is very fortunate to have a capable and dedicated group of volunteers such as those who make the fire department what it is, one that is strong in community spirit and ready to come forward in an emergency.

We have been informed that the fire department raised some $300 for the Terry Fox Cancer Research Fund as a result of a party held for that purpose last week - another good effort by the men and their ladies.

-one tabby cat, female.

-a black and tan terrier, female, found in the Lutterworth area.

Highway 35 at Hall's Lake has announced that he intends to stand for election as Councilman for Stanhope Township. Dale has served on the fire department for several years and, after resigning from the department, returned to serve again at a time when the Township was facing a fire protection emergency and called on former members to help meet the emergency.

Those who regularly attend Township Council meetings are aware of Dale's interest in community affairs, which is shown by his frequent attendance at the meetings and by his quite informative file of notes which he makes at the meetings he is present at.

Another potential candidate for Township Council is Mrs. Ann Barker who has been approached on several occasions to consider standing for election. When we spoke to her, Ann stated that she was giving it very serious thought and would be willing to run if she was convinced that she could serve the Township of Stanhope in a meaningful way.

Her interest in the township is well known and few things happen that do not have her active support. Among these are the annual Stanhope Days, her concern for Senior Citizens, her presence on the Community Hall Committee, but above all is her dedication to the Stanhope Fire Department.

Any member of the fire department would tell you that the support of the ladies has been essential to the progress of the department, and Ann has joined with the other ladies in supporting their men in every effort.

Ann has also played an important, though little known part in fire emergencies in the township through maintaining radio and telephone contact with the fire fighters when they are out on a call. This often means getting more precise information re location of a fire when directions have not been properly given by the person calling for assistance.

Formerly in business for herself, Ann is well known to many seasonal as well as permanent residents as is her husband Don who operates a heating contracting business in Stanhope.

Plan a safe hunting trip

Each year during hunting season, the Ontario Provincial Police must commit a large portion of its manpower and resources to searches for lost hunters.

Starting October 16, an OPP helicopter will be operating out of the Chapleau area during the busiest part of the season. It will be available for patrol and search assignments.

Trappers and bush workers soon learn to respect their environment. The bush can be a hostile place unless you are fit, healthy and know survival techniques.

Provincial police recommend that every hunter carry a survival kit, compass and topographical map of the area where they are hunting.

No hunter should go into the bush unless someone knows where he will be hunting and when to expect him back.

A survival kit is a necessity for the hunter. A small package with waterproof matches, aluminum foil, fishing hook and line, and some high-energy foods takes up very little room and could make the difference between life and death.

Survival kits like this are available commercially and come wrapped in plastic so they are completely waterproof.

First aid supplies are a must. They should include large dressings for treating serious lacerations and broken bones as well as bandages for minor cuts.

The old trick of blazing a trail is still good. A heavy knife will do the job. A knife will also be essential if a hunter does lose his bearings and has to spend a night in the bush.

Add a hank of good nylon cord and the kit is complete.

The words to remember are: "Stay where you are if you do get lost." With this equipment on hand, the hunter will be ready for the worst. It's light, not too cumbersome and could mean survival.

The main enemy is not cold nights and bad weather. It's panic. Some hunters will even take a pocket book so they have something to take their minds off their predicament and allow them to calm down.

OPP officers on a search for a lost hunter are looking for the accepted distress signals: three well-defined shots, three smudge fires, three pieces of reflective foil of clothing laid out; always the combination of three items -- the bush distress signal.

Winner of the 10 piece aluminum cookware set drawn for at Stedman's last week was Ivy Angliss of R.R. 2 Minden. Congratulations.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Master Kent Smith and Oscar Kennettle whose funerals were since last week.

We read in the Toronto Star that people who book on Charter Flights or Bus Tours may purchase cancellation insurance; at any rate read the fine print when you speak for these tickets, sometimes you can't get your deposit back, even if it is through illness.

Fred Hewitt and Colin Hewitt of Toronto visited part of the weekend with their mother Mrs. Ern Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Goudie of Whitby surprised Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Bunker and Chris last Thursday when they dropped in for a visit.

Don't forget these people at Hyland Crest Home having birthdays in October, Ethel MacDonald, Oct. 10, Tryphina Jenkins, Oct. 12, Berta Dawson, Oct. 22, Sarah Simmons, Oct. 25, Thomas Harrison, Oct. 6 and Nillo Mankinen, Oct. 19. They might appreciate a visit, a phone call or a birthday card.

However hard or long it rains, Be sure the sun will shine; Bad weather's hard to bear, but oh, Life's troubles come to all, alas-- Keep on...the worst of them must pass.

At the weekly Mini Card Party at the Parish Hall last Thursday afternoon winners were for cribbage Ethel Leigh and Diane Stevens and for euchre lone hands Della Griffin and others Freda Harrison and Yvonne Beauchage. Don't forget to come out all you of the 'old gang' and any newcomers are welcome, we start at 1:30 sharp.

Wedding bells were ringing on Saturday with congratulations going to Mr. and Mrs. Lockie Davis (nee Denise Dorion).

Weekend guest with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Angus Coulter was son Gerald Coulter of Toronto.

MaryLou Johnson has been in St. Joseph Hospital Peterborough and returned home on Friday; she is going on crutches for a few weeks.

Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Robinson were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyle of Meaford.

Strikes and more strikes! Wonder what we'll do if all the mail stops--many people have lost important papers and cheques when they stop in transit. Hope they settle this soon, and hope you weren't stopped part way home by air.

A heart full of thankfulness, A thimbleful of care; A soul of simple hopefulness, An early morning prayer. A smile to greet the morning with:

A kind word as the key To open the door and greet the day Whate'er it brings to thee. A patient trust in Providence, To sweeten all the way, All these, combined with thoughtfulness, Will make a happy day.

Lines from Lutterworth by Jean Lacey

Hi! Well, half of a good weekend is better than none, I guess. Sure has been cold the last few days along with frost at night killing off the gardens.

Pete and Fran Learn of Niagara Falls are up to their cottage for a few days.

Mr. Nuetzel is up at his cottage for a few days.

Sorry to hear than Ern Wright is in the Lindsay Hospital. I hear it is full and he had to be in the "Treatment Room" until they could get him a bed.

Mr. Ken Flaxman was up visiting Anne and Frank Dunsford for a few days.

Jean Lacey is down in Orangeville awaiting to go into the hospital as soon as a bed is available.

Innocence Could we but keep our childhood heart,

Mary Johnson guest speaker (a missionary from Ethiopia) and time of this is 7:30. Anyone interested in any of these items is welcome to attend.

The darkness falls much sooner now--

October nights are cold; If you've a neighbour all alone,

A neighbour growing old, Please drop in sometime after tea--

You just don't know how pleased she'll be!

(Anon)

Rain on Saturday - cool and clear on Sunday and Monday. The colour is beginning now. Many bus tours to our area, guess we don't know how fortunate we are. Cheerio until next time.

Innocent and pure; Could we but love with childhood's love, Uncritical and sure; Could we but watch with wonder the sun's new rise, And see the world around us through our child's clear eyes.

Hint of the Week

Longer lasting Panty Hose: Before you ever wear a new pair of hose they should be frozen first. No kidding, they will last longer if you wet them thoroughly, wring out gently, place in a plastic bag and toss in the freezer. Once frozen, thaw in bathtub and then hang to dry. It's wild and crazy, but it's true!

OR, starch them very, very lightly. This helps resist runs and they will also go on easily.

There is nothing so powerful as truth.

Sorry it is so short this week, better luck next week. Bye for now. Take it easy. God bless till next time.

It has been a very busy week at Hyland Crest beginning with our fun and fitness program on Monday morning. The ladies spent the afternoon Monday and Tuesday making their own special recipes in preparation for the baking contest.

Tuesday morning Rev. Brewster of the Allsaw mission held service in the Chapel. We enjoyed singing some favorite gospel hymns while Agnes Taylor played the organ for us.

Wednesday was fun day, and the resident and staff alike had a great time. Before the doors of the auditorium were opened, the baking that was done by our lady residents was judged. Mrs. Marjorie Kanally got the Special Prize for her chocolate cake. Amelia Good took first for her lemon pie, Mrs. Nin Strutt, second for her butterscotch squares, and Mrs. Zilpah Hie third for her butter tarts. The official judge Mr. Gordon Ruppel, had a hard decision to make as all the entries were absolutely delicious. Judge Ruppel wore his official judging hat, and had a sign on the back of his wheelchair reading "There Goes The Judge!"

After the judging, the doors were opened and the Nail Driving Contest began. In the women's division, Viola Deumo came first and Isabella Avery was second after a tie Amelia Good was in third place.

In the men's division, Alf Richardson was first. Bill Deacon was second and Harry Robinson was third.

Next on the agenda was the Hog Calling Contest. We heard some pretty funny calls but Sarah Simmons topped them all and ended up in first place. Isabella Avery was second and Alf Richardson placed third. Harry Robinson, Bill Deacon and Doris Vaughn had the difficult task of judging this one.

Next was the Shoe Kicking Contest. Vi Deumo and Bill Deacon kicked their shoes the farthest for first place. Winnie Johnson and Hugh McEachern were second, and Isabella Avery and Alf Richardson came in third.

After lunch, everyone made their way back to the Auditorium for an afternoon of laughs.

The ladies Beauty Contest was first on the list, and much to the surprise of the judges the ladies were dressed in the most intriguing costumes you ever saw. We sure had a lot of fun watching the ladies trying their best to impress the panel of judges. After a difficult decision they made Doris Vaughn, queen of Hyland Crest, Doris was dressed like Sunbonnet Sue. First princess was Evaline Pember. She was a real cute flapper from the 20's. Second princess was Della Curry. She was a very shy lady dressed in clothes from the early 1900's. The judges were

Harry Robinson, Alf Richardson and Bill Deacon.

The last event of the day was hilarious. It was the Mens Leg Contest. The mens legs were judged for the hairiest, the skinniest and the most shapely. The panel of judges, namely Irene Burns, Carrie Jones and Viola Deumo had a tough time deciding but finally came up with a decision. Harry Robinson had the hairiest legs. Ernest Berry had the skinniest and Hugh McEachern had the shapeliest. To end the day, the ladies served their delicious home-made goodies and tea. What a feast we all had and what a fun day it was.

As mentioned before residents and staff alike had a great time, and I would like to give a special thank you to all the staff and volunteers who helped to make it all possible.

The ladies of Kinmount Horticultural Society served a delicious variety of sandwiches and goodies at the birthday tea party on Thursday afternoon. They presented our birthday people with a beautifully decorated cake, and we joined our voices together to sing Happy Birthday to them. Our special guests of honour were Isabella Eastman, Mary Oliver and Frank Billings.

We ended the week Friday on a happy note with Grace Coburn and Lucille Clarke leading us in the sing song.
